

All Party Parliamentary Group on Privacy

Providing Early Warning Protection on Privacy Issues to Parliament

Enquiry Agenda

Interception Modernisation Programme

ABOUT THE APPG

Purpose

- Promote interest in and protection of the right to privacy;
- Address key emerging privacy issues in public policy; and
- Promote debate and discussion of privacy related issues throughout Parliament.

Officers of the group

Edward Garnier QC MP
(Conservative) – Chair

Lord Peston (Labour) – Vice Chair

The Earl of Northesk
(Conservative) – Vice Chair

David Heath MP (Liberal Democrat) – Vice Chair

Secretariat

Privacy International
privacyint@privacy.org
<http://privacyappg.org.uk>

An enquiry meeting into the UK Government's latest communications surveillance proposals will be held in Committee Room 15 of the House on Wednesday July 1st between 10.00 and 11.45.

A number of experts have been invited to present evidence on the implications of these proposals. Home Office and Industry representatives have agreed to speak, along with independent experts.

The Chairman of the meeting will be Edward Garnier QC MP.

Agenda

Welcome from the Chair

Presentation from the Government's Perspective

- Tim Hayward, Director, Interception Modernisation Programme, Home Office
- Jim Gamble, Chief Executive, Child Exploitation and Online Protection Centre

Presentation from the Industry Perspective

- Martin Hoskins, Head of Data Protection & Disclosure, T-Mobile UK

Presentation from the Policy and Technological Perspectives

- Professor Peter Sommer, Visiting Professor at the London School of Economics and Political Science
- Dr Richard Clayton, Computing Laboratory, University of Cambridge